

FOUNTAINS of YOUTH

The immediate first impression of Toscana goes to its unmistakable character, to the integrity, quality and overwhelming sense that everything is just right. Details, scale, proportion are carefully considered and everywhere satisfying. Landscapes and architecture frame views that unfold gradually as one rounds turns, crests hills. Here too is an appealing and soothing softness that belies the desert. Pathways meander, flowers cascade, vines climb and everywhere there is the music of water.